

JUDICIARY GUESTS AT WHITE HOUSE

President and Mrs. Wilson Entertain First State Reception Tonight.

Hour Advanced to Nine

Mrs. Lansing, in Absence of Marshalls, Stands Next Mrs. Wilson.

The President and Mrs. Wilson will be hosts this evening at the first state reception of the season, the reception to the judiciary, which promises to be one of the most brilliant events of the winter. The hour has been advanced from 9:30 to 9 o'clock, and promptly on the moment the President and Mrs. Wilson, followed by the members of their official family, will come down the great stairway and take their places in the Blue Room, where the Chief Executive always receives on formal occasions.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Edward Douglas White, and Mrs. White will be the first to greet the President and Mrs. Wilson, and two new faces will be seen in the line of associate justices of the Supreme Court, Justice Brandeis, who has the place left vacant by the death of Justice Lamar, and Justice Clark, who replaced Charles E. Hughes when he resigned. Mrs. Brandeis also will make her first appearance at a state reception at the White House since she joined the Supreme Court circle.

As the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall left town this morning to spend the Christmas holidays in Arizona with Mrs. Marshall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Kimsey, Mrs. Lansing, wife of the Secretary of State, will stand next to President Wilson in the receiving line. Mrs. Lane, wife of the Secretary of the Interior, who is in mourning, and Mrs. Wilson, wife of the Secretary of Labor, who is ill, also will be absent.

The Marine Band will play during the evening and a supper will be served in the state dining room. Miss Margaret Wilson and Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, who returned to town last evening from New York, will assist informally in welcoming the guests.

Attend Motion Picture.

The President and Mrs. Wilson attended the motion picture production of "A Daughter of the Gods" at the Belasco Theater last evening, and has as their guests Mrs. Wilson's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hunter Galt. Yesterday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Wilson went to the Corcoran Gallery of Art walking through the snow in the most democratic fashion, and spent some time looking over the exhibition there.

Mrs. Taber Martin, daughter of the Secretary of the Treasury, and her children, who have been visiting Secretary and Mrs. McAdoo for some time, will remain in Washington until after Christmas.

Lansings to Entertain.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing will entertain at dinner tomorrow evening with the Italian Ambassador and Countess Maccelli di Cellere and the Japanese Ambassador, Mr. Sato, as the principal guests.

Mrs. Warren, wife of Assistant Attorney General Charles Warren, entertained informally at luncheon today for a few guests who were asked to meet the Hon. Mrs. John Lyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren expect to leave Washington January 2 for Dedham, Mass., where Mr. Warren's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Winslow Warren, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on January 3. Winslow Warren was collector of the Port of Boston during the Cleveland Administration.

Princess Leaves City.

Prince Alfred zu Hohenlohe-Schillingfurst and his bride, who was formerly Miss Catharine Britton, will leave Washington today for San Francisco, where the prince must report by Sunday to his post at the Austro-Hungarian consulate. On the completion of their short wedding trip they made a twenty-four-hour visit to the princess' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Britton.

The Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution and Mrs. Charles D. Walcott have issued invitations for a dinner January 5.

Mrs. Kellogg Takes Flat.

Mrs. Sanford C. Kellogg and her daughter, Mrs. Kellogg Bradley, have taken an apartment at the Marlborough for the winter.

Mrs. David Jayne Hill has cards out for a reception January 1, from 4 to 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Julian James will be hostess at tea Saturday, December 30, from 5 to 7 o'clock.

VICE PRESIDENT DINED

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Guests of Honor at Party.

The Vice President and Mrs. Thomas Riley Marshall were the honor guests at dinner last evening, with the Third Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. William Phillips as hosts. The other guests were the Spanish Ambassador and Mme. Riano, the American ambassador to Mexico, Henry P. Fletcher; Senator and Mrs. Francis G. Newlands; Senator James D. Phelan, Solicitor General and Mrs. John W. Davis; Mr. and Mrs. Corcoran Thom, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Wallace, Mrs. Marshall Field, Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, Miss Ethel Harriman, and Edgar H. Wells. The table had an elaborate decoration of Easter lilies and carnations.

Entertain at Dinner.

Senator and Mrs. Willard K. Saulsbury entertained at dinner last evening in honor of the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing. The guests asked to meet them were the Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. Houston, the Governor of the Federal Reserve Board and Mrs. Charles S. Hamlin, the Assistant Attorney General and Mrs. Charles Warren, Adolph Miller, of the Federal Reserve Board, and Mrs. Miller; Col. and Mrs. W. W. Harris, Mrs. Thomas F. Bayard, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore W. Noyes, and Gen. James Wilson, of Wilmington, Del.

The Counselor of the State Department and Mrs. Frank L. Polk were hosts at dinner last evening, entertaining in compliment to the German Ambassador and Countess von Bernstorff, and the Swedish Minister and Mme. Ekengren.

Pianist to Give Guest.

Mme. Ida P. Scuderi-Raglin, pianist, will be the guest of honor at the weekly reception at the Congressional Club Friday afternoon.

Miss Marjorie Knox, of Boston, is making a short visit in Washington.

Miss Margaret North was hostess at an informal bridge party this afternoon, entertaining in compliment to Miss Ethel Norris, who will be married Saturday to Dr. Nelson Clark Dale. The other guests were Mrs. Ezra Gould, Miss Louise Williams, Miss Ruth Lerner, Mrs. Sidney Taliaferro, Miss Frances Edmonston, and Miss Esther Speer.

NEWS OF ANACOSTIA

Sunday Schools in Suburb Prepare for Xmas Entertainments.

Sunday schools are making elaborate plans for Christmas entertainments. At the Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church two separate entertainments will be held, one for the primary department, in charge of Mrs. Samuel R. Campbell, and one for the older scholars, in charge of A. H. Suit.

In Emmanuel Sunday school the entertainment will be held in the parish hall, preceded by a special service for children in the church. Each child will be expected to bring a present, which will later be sent to poor children.

At the Anacostia Church the entertainment will be elaborate. At the Garden Memorial Presbyterian Church Miss Laura Sowerbutts will be in charge.

Anacostia Lodge, No. 21, F. A. A. M., last night installed these officers: Lawrence L. Dunning, master; John T. Fowler, Jr., senior warden; Ernest E. Fisher, junior warden; Milton J. Fillius, secretary; Adolphus Gude, treasurer; Samuel R. Frazier, senior deacon; Roland E. Skinner, junior deacon; Arthur L. Simpson, senior steward; Jacob G. Moody, junior steward; James W. Marbury, tiller.

The Ladies' Guild of Emmanuel Church has postponed its meeting until after the first of the year.

Anacostia Tent, No. 7, of the Macabees, met last night in Masonic Hall.

PATRIOTIC CIVIC MEETING.

A joint meeting of patriotic and civic bodies will be held at the Willard Hotel tonight at 8 o'clock to discuss resolutions urging passage of a bill for the prevention of the improper use of the flag, now in the Senate.

FT. MYER RESUMES EXHIBITION DRILLS

Spectacular Cavalry Feature Opens Program of Winter Activities.

A cavalry exhibition drill will be held in the riding hall at Fort Myer Thursday, December 28, at 2:30 o'clock. Tickets will be issued by the adjutant at Fort Myer upon application by letter.

Owing to the small garrison present at the post, these drills, which last year were a feature, have not been held regularly. The drill next week marks the resumption of winter activities at the post.

Mrs. Henry P. Dimock, who has been passing a few days in New York with Mrs. Frederick P. Thompson, will return to Washington today.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Hitt entertained at dinner last evening before the Monday Evening Dancing Class at the Playhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes Hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hughes gave a dinner last evening in the Louis XIV room of the Astor Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes are stopping at the Astor, and will remain until Wednesday, when they will take possession of the apartment in the Verona, Sixty-fourth street and Madison avenue, which they have leased for the season.

Col. and Mrs. George F. Downey entertained at dinner at the Shoreham last evening.

Capt. and Mrs. Henry Wiley have cards out for a dance at the Playhouse December 29 for their daughters, Miss Elizabeth Wiley and Miss Roberta Wiley.

Stopping at Shoreham.

Mrs. E. K. Cole, of Annapolis, who is in Washington for a short visit, is stopping at the Shoreham. Mrs. John C. Breckinridge, of New York, is also making her headquarters at the Shoreham while in Washington.

Dr. Charles Paul Hubacher, secretary of the Swiss legation, and Mme. Hubacher will go to Cincinnati this week to spend Christmas with Mme. Hubacher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Kealey Schoepf.

Mrs. Lewis Newton Murray, of Dunkirk, N. Y., will reach Washington today to make a short visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kauffmann, who are occupying their sixteenth street home this winter.

Mrs. Kauffmann and Mrs. Murray will be at home Wednesday, December 20, after 4 o'clock.

WILL RECEIVE DIPLOMATS

C. C. Calhoun Will Head Line at Pan-American Building.

C. C. Calhoun, president of the Southern Society of Washington, will head the receiving line at the reception to the diplomatic representatives of South and Central American countries which the society will give at the Pan-American Union building Thursday evening. Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, who is vice president of the society, and Mrs. Daniels; Surgeon General W. C. Gorgas, U. S. A., a former president, and Mrs. Gorgas; R. W. Woolley, chairman of the executive committee, and Mrs. Woolley, will also be in the receiving line.

Will Be in Uniform.

As the President and Mrs. Wilson will be among the guests, it is expected that all officers of the army and navy will be in uniform. The invitations are in such demand that the list will be closed today.

Rear Admiral Bradley A. Fiske, U. S. N., spoke on "Our Navy" at the luncheon given this afternoon by the colony: presidents of the New England Society, at the Majestic Hotel, New York. Major Halstead Dorey, U. S. A., aide to Major General Wood, discussed "Our Army."
